Standing Strong is a one-day celebration of God's faithfulness in places where faith costs the most - a chance to meet your persecuted family from around the world. Speakers Pastor Abraham James* from Nigeria and Pastor Sandeep Kumar from India will share their personal experiences as well as the issues for persecuted Christians where they live. Pastor Jamal in his address, recorded at Standing Strong Birmingham, will share the amazing ministry of his church in Lebanon which is serving the needs of Syrian refugees. There will also be a global perspective from a senior director of Open Doors International and other speakers, as well as times of worship and prayer for our persecuted family led by Ryan Griffith. It will be held in Assembly Buildings Conference Centre, Belfast on Saturday 21 October 2017, 9.30am to 4pm. Tickets are £15 (£20 after 30th June). If you would like a ticket speak to Connor or Andrew.

Thought for the week: "Where there is faith, there is love. Where there is love, there is peace. Where there is peace, there is blessing. Where there is blessing, there is God. And where there is God, there is no need". Swiss Prayer.

Joke for the week: In the west and the south of Ireland we have a habit of saluting oncoming traffic. Rev Sam McGuffin was driving in West Cork. His young son was in the seat beside him and Sam saluted an oncoming car at the same time as a little bird flew across the road in front of them. Richard looked up and asked his father, "Do you know that wee bird daddy?"
