We are praying with expectation that our God will do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think during this time of seeking him on behalf of ourselves, our families, our community and country. Come Lord Jesus! Have your way in us.

METHODIST HISTORIAL SOCIETY annual lecture on Friday at 7.30pm in Edgehill College. Sacred Harmony - An illustrated lecture by Prof Desmond Hunter exploring the heritage of Irish Methodist hymns and tunes. Based on the earliest Irish Methodist tune book compiled by Rev William Smith in 1810, he looks at the hymns and tunes that have stood the test of time. Music performed by Musicos Amicos, directed by Philip Prosser.

MISSION BOXES Anyone with an overseas mission box, could you please return it to Mare Patton as soon as possible. The box opening is earlier this year, due to the change over of pound coins. Thank you.

THOUGHT In real fellowship people experience mercy.

Fellowship is a place of grace, where mistakes aren't rubbed in, but rubbed out".

A Minister said to a boisterous six year old boy, "so your mother says some prayers with you each night. That's really wonderful. What does she say? The little boy replied, "she always says, "Thank God he's in bed!"

Christmas Fayre

Our Christmas Fayre is being held on Saturday
25 November
from 10.00am-12.30pm

The Bowling Club have recently indicated that they no longer wish to be involved with the Bric-a-Brac stall at the Christmas Fayre. We would like to say a very big thank you to them for their service and organisation of this stall for many years.

We would ask if there is anyone who feels they would like to help with the organising and serving or even if you would be able to give an hour of your time towards this stall could they please contact Marie Patton or Alison Deering.

Anyone interested in having a table, could you please contact Marie Patton or Alison Deering before 5 November.
