Circuit Pilgrimage? In many ways the Castlewellan Holiday Week is our Church retreat. Can I wholeheartedly commend this for your consideration? However, having gained considerable experience in leading groups to Bible lands, I was wondering if there is any interest in a foreign Circuit Pilgrimage. The best time of year to visit lands around the Mediterranean is springtime. The week after Easter (22nd-29th April) might be suitable for Greece. Prices are approximate, per person sharing, with a certified tour guide, ATOL protected travel agent and half board.

1. Malta (including St Paul's Bay, Goza, War Rooms etc, etc). Staying near Valetta, c.£500
2. Rome (including the Catacombs, Colosseum, and sites associated with St Peter and St Paul). Staying in Villa Irlanda, c.£800
3. Greece (including Corinth and Philippi). Staying in Athens & Kavala, c.£1,000
4. Holy Land in a Week (visiting major sites in Galilee, Bethlehem, the Dead Sea and Jerusalem), c.£1,500.
5. With an extra week of walking in the Holy Land, +£500.

Please email Kingston.a@btinternet.com over the next few weeks indicating your preferred destination.
