Harvest Services

Sunday 14 October 10.45am and 7.00pm

Theme "Harvest of the Sea"

The speaker for the evening service is Rev Colin Hall-Thompson (Mission to Seafarers). We will be hosting the Boys' Brigade NI Centenary Male Voice Choir.

Please note, our Harvest Offering this year is all going for the needs of others, through our Methodist World Development and Relief. Please use the envelope provided. Irish Methodists are asked to work out 1% of our annual income at this time of great global poverty and need. Also do bring in anything of a nautical theme along with your fruit, flowers and vegetables on Friday afternoon at 2.30pm. We are not collecting tins this year.

Please give as usual for our local food bank in St Marks'

Child Protection Training

Next training will take place on Wednesday 18 October at 7.30pm in Comber Methodist Church.

Call to Prayer

We already meet for prayer on Tuesday afternoons from 1-1.20pm. Now we are offering the additional time 10-10.30am on Communion Sundays (1st Sunday of each month). We will commence next Sunday morning with an excerpt from Pete Greig's acclaimed book on prayer, "Dirty Glory". "My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations". Isaiah 56:7, Mark 11:17.

A Big Thank You from the Macmillan Team

Roberta and team raised the amazing sum of £782.10 at the recent Coffee Day held here in Regent Street Methodist Church. We would like to thank everyone who volunteered, baked and came to catch up for a cup of tea and a bun to raise this fantastic total. We would be nothing without your support.

A huge thank you from the North Down and Ards Committee.

Glide to Jutland

Our Presbyterian neighbours (RSPC) hope to have a trip to HMS Caroline via Glide bus on Monday 15 October 2018 from 9.30am-12.30pm approximately. Costs are variable depending on numbers etc. All welcome. If interested please speak to Noel Leckey 07751 1180379.
