Dear Friends,

We are so grateful for your support this year.

Right now, on our floating hospitals, children are dancing for joy. Parents smile with tears in their eyes. Laughter fills the wards. And all because of you.

Your love is the fuel that keeps our hospital ships running. You're helping to reach so many people with vital surgical care.

Thank you for bringing hope and healing.

New: watch Fudia's story

Fudia, 10, was born with a disease that made her legs painfully bow outwards.

This new video brought tears to our eyes. Watch her incredibly brave journey to healing.

Training saves lives

Thanks to you, nurses are learning how to keep surgical instruments clean, and fight infection.

Kardiatu, a nurse who has improved her professional skills in Sierra Leone, says, "I want to say a very big thank you. May God bless you and thank you for everything."
