We are the Evangelical Alliance

Join us today

And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one:
I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

John 17:22-23

Who we are

Since 1846, the Evangelical Alliance has been sharing the gospel, lifting voices of hope, and building unity.

We are the oldest and largest evangelical unity movement in the UK, joining together thousands of individuals, churches and organisations as together we make Jesus known.

We love Jesus and want everyone in the UK to be given an opportunity to know Him. We love His church, and will do all we can to unite evangelicals, build confidence in the gospel, and speak as a trusted voice into society to see it changed for Him.

Will you join us?

We are an alliance of evangelicals; we exist to serve the church and support each other. Here's what just a few of our members had to say about the importance of unity, and about the Evangelical Alliance:

“We joined the Evangelical Alliance because partnership in Christ enables us to support and encourage one another in our mission.”

– Tim Jeffery, CEO, Torch Trust, members since 1963

“Being a Christian from a South Asian background can be quite isolating, so we're building a network of people who can understand one another from a cultural perspective and be a sounding board.”

– Rani Joshi, one of our South Asian Forum champions

“We are working together, as the body of Christ, so that Jesus' great commission is accomplished on earth. Our unity is the only way to see God's kingdom advance across our country and the world.”

– Joanna Lamb, PR and publicity manager, MAF, members since 1989

What we do

Sharing the gospel, lifting voices of hope, building unity. Together making Jesus known.

We walk in the tradition of the evangelicals who have gone before us, those who abolished the slave trade, those who reformed our justice system, those who championed education for all. Today it is evangelicals who are at the heart of debt counselling, street pastors, night shelters and foodbanks.

Today it is active evangelical faith, in politics, education, evangelism, church planting, the arts and every other aspect of culture, that is making a profound difference throughout our communities for the sake of the gospel.

Through events, training, public policy work, resources and publications, we encourage the church and speak up on behalf of those who are maligned and marginalised. We affirm freedoms and proclaim the good news of Jesus in words and in action.

Our pledge to our members

Since 1846, guided by our basis of faith and our relationship commitments, we have sought to be an alliance for the evangelical community. The Evangelical Alliance works across the UK, with offices in London, Cardiff, Glasgow, Belfast and Stockport. We are committed to fostering strong relationships amongst our membership.

Our members come together from across denominations, locations and ethnicities to share fresh ideas, celebrate best practice and catalyse innovation throughout the evangelical community and beyond.

We know that together we can achieve much more than we can ever achieve alone.

We exist to serve you, our members.

And so, to you, we make the following commitments:

Relationship.

We promise to introduce you to like-minded Christians representing the breadth of the evangelical church in the UK. When you join us, you join a community saturated in prayer, sharing best practice, ideas, experience, support and encouragement.

Representation.

We promise to champion the freedoms we have in the UK to have a public faith in Jesus and share that faith with others. We will represent the needs and interests of the church in politics, the media and civil society, speaking out on issues that matter, with a hope-filled, trustworthy and confident voice.

Resource.

We promise to share the wealth of resources, expertise and ideas of our members with our members. With the gospel at the very heartbeat of who we are, we will provide you with excellent, credible resources to help you to share the good news of Jesus.

As an individual member of the Evangelical Alliance, you will take part in seeing God's kingdom come as we seek to make Jesus known across the UK.

We will also make sure you gain access to:

- Resources to equip and encourage you through our website eauk.org, using your personal account.
- idea, our quarterly magazine, which is full of good news stories, great ideas and opportunities to hear what God is up to around the UK.

You will also:

- Be the first to hear of events, gatherings, training opportunities, new resources, advocacy campaigns and prayer initiatives through our emails and appeals.
- Gain representation on a national and UK-wide scale as we speak up on behalf of the church and the vulnerable to government and the media.
- Be able to invite an Evangelical Alliance speaker to your church or organisation to share our experiences of what God is doing in the UK today.

Evangelical Alliance Basis of Faith

We believe in...

The one true God who lives eternally in three persons – the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

The love, grace and sovereignty of God in creating, sustaining, ruling, redeeming and judging the world.

The divine inspiration and supreme authority of the Old and New Testament scriptures, which are the written word of God – fully trustworthy for faith and conduct.

The dignity of all people, made male and female in God's image to love, be holy and care for creation, yet corrupted by sin, which incurs divine wrath and judgement.

The incarnation of God's eternal Son, the Lord Jesus Christ – born of the virgin Mary; truly divine and truly human, yet without sin.

The atoning sacrifice of Christ on the cross: dying in our place, paying the price of sin and defeating evil, so reconciling us with God.

The bodily resurrection of Christ, the first fruits of our resurrection; His ascension to the Father, and His reign and mediation as the only Saviour of the world.

The justification of sinners solely by the grace of God through faith in Christ.

The ministry of God the Holy Spirit, who leads us to repentance, unites us with Christ through new birth, empowers our discipleship and enables our witness.

The church, the body of Christ both local and universal, the priesthood of all believers – given life by the Spirit and endowed with the Spirit's gifts to worship God and proclaim the gospel, promoting justice and love.

The personal and visible return of Jesus Christ to fulfil the purposes of God, who will raise all people to judgement, bring eternal life to the redeemed and eternal condemnation to the lost, and establish a new Heaven and new earth.
