Hi [REDACTED]

Right now, children in Bangladesh are being trafficked for sex. But together, we can help stop it.

On Monday 13th October at 7pm, you're invited to learn more about IJM's brand new office stopping child sex trafficking in Bangladesh.

Come along to hear an exclusive conversation between two frontline leaders who both have direct experience working to stop child sexual exploitation in South Asia: IJM's Biju Mathew and Scott Adams.

Who are the speakers?

- Biju Mathew is currently IJM UK's Interim CEO – but previously, he led IJM's team in Kolkata, where we've now seen an incredible 80% reduction in commercial sexual exploitation of children.
- Scott Adams leads IJM's communications and public engagement in South Asia, helping survivors tell their powerful stories. Scott was in Bangladesh earlier this year and remains in close regular contact with the team on the ground.

Biju and Scott will share behind-the-scenes insights into the scale of child sexual exploitation in Bangladesh – and why they have great hope that together, we can stop this abuse.

Yes, I'll be there >>

In the words of IJM Bangladesh's Senior Vice President Claire Wilkinson, "Children are raped multiple times every day so that others may gain wealth. But as we launch our programme, I have great hope – because this is not the end of the story."

This is your chance to be part of incredible change.

We hope to see you there,

Molly Hodson

Chief Public Engagement Officer, IJM UK

P.S. Right now, as many as 100,000 children are trapped in the sex trade in Bangladesh. You can help bring children to safety from sexual abuse by setting up a regular gift. Now is the best time because your Freedom Partner gifts will be DOUBLED.

New monthly donations will be doubled until 18th October, up to a cumulative total of £7,500, thanks to a generous donor. Consent gathered for all images.*
