Hi [REDACTED]

This International Women's Day – Sunday 8th March – you're invited to celebrate the women in your life who matter to you and turn time with friends and family into something powerful.

Gather your friends for dinner (or desserts, a coffee morning, or picky bits!) and join a global movement celebrating women and breaking the silence around violence.

Nicola shared,

"I've hosted three Gather events now and have so many wonderful memories to cherish! My friends and I have had meaningful conversations and been inspired to help women around the world."

Get your free Gather kit now, including a step-by-step guide to help you host a memorable fundraising event, conversation starters, recipes from acclaimed chefs, an all-female playlist and more!

This year's official International Women's Day theme is 'Give to Gain' – a reminder that when we share generously, we build a more equal and connected world for women. Gathering around the table can open up space for sharing experiences, reflection, and shared passion for protecting women from abuse.

1 in 3 women globally experience violence in their lifetime. IJM has helped bring over 38,151 women and children to safety from violence, and tens of thousands more from trafficking. By hosting a Gather, you can help reach many more.

Every woman everywhere deserves to be safe from violence. Everyone everywhere can be part of making that possible. Even asking your friends to donate the equivalent of a bottle of wine or pudding can make a difference.

Take two minutes now to sign up and turn time with your friends and family into something extra meaningfu

Here's to building a safer world for women, together.

Until all are free,
