Bible Society Northern Ireland Newsletter

April 2026

Dear [REDACTED],

It's Holy Week - a week that draws us into the heart of the Jesus story, inviting us to slow down, to pay attention to God, and to fix our eyes on the cross of Christ. From palm branches and cloaks laid on the road to the shadow of the cross, this week we follow Jesus step by step as He reveals a love that holds nothing back.

Across the world, people are searching for purpose, love, and truth. The Bible tells us of that source, and this year as a Bible Society we are reminded that God has not abandoned the world. Christ has come near.

Jesus' resurrection is the foundation for our hope, and the reason we continue to share that Bible, placing it into waiting hands and hearts.

Northern Ireland

Please pray for the ongoing work of Bible Society Northern Ireland at home. From travelling across the country to share in churches, to packing Bibles and writing birthday cards in Bible House, to all of the behind the scenes administration, we appreciate your prayers for it all.

“Well done, good and faithful servant!”

After 23 years of faithful service, we are preparing to say thank you and goodbye to Campbell Moore as he retires at the end of this week.

Campbell’s legacy is one of quiet stewardship, deep faithfulness, and unwavering commitment to ‘Sharing the Bible so all people can know Jesus’. For so many, he has been the friendly, reassuring voice on the end of the phone or welcome into Bible House - always ready to help, encourage, and serve everyone.

He will be deeply missed by all associated with Bible Society Northern Ireland. As Campbell steps into this new chapter, we pray God’s richest blessings for him and his family, with gratitude for all he has given so faithfully over the years.

Bible-a-Month Partnership

Millions across the world have no access to the Bible.

Our vision is to see a world where all people can experience the transformational power of relationship with Jesus through engaging with the Bible. We want everyone to have the opportunity to access the Bible in an affordable and appropriate format.

From just £10 per month, your Bible-a-Month Partnership with Bible Society Northern Ireland will enable someone to have the copy of God's Word they long for.

Since Russia's invasion of Ukraine began over 4 years ago, millions of Ukrainians have lost their homes and loved ones. The desolation of cities, towns, and villages has been vast. But in the midst of this destruction, there is a remarkable hunger for Bibles being reported by churches.

This month, your Bible-a-Month partnership is supporting the 'Hope Amidst Fear' project, run by the Ukrainian Bible Society. This project aims to bring the light of God's Word into this nation shattered by conflict. People who have never owned or taken an interest in the Bible are asking for one, so that they too, can search for comfort and peace.

The Ukrainian Bible Society provides Bibles to soldiers, displaced families, hospitals and shelters. Each copy is distributed with love, and offers strength, peace, and the assurance of God's presence in these times of uncertainty and fear.

If you would like to read more about the work going on in Ukraine, why not check out Tetiana's story from the Spring edition of our magazine - Word at Work.

Pause and Pray

- Pray for peace in Ukraine.
- Pray for openness of more hearts to hear the Gospel message
- Pray for continued partnership with organisations and chaplains who risk their lives to bring the Bible to these devastated places.

Help give a Bible-a-Month

From as little as £10 a month you could help give someone the gift of a Bible

This project is our Bible-a-Month project for April. By becoming a Bible-a-Month partner you will help provide Scripture to people all over the world every month. You will receive a free calendar each year with information about this and 11 other Bible Society projects. Resource Highlight

Translation Insights & Perspectives (TIPs)

TIPs is a tool that collects and presents examples from Bible translations around the world which enrich the biblical text in ways that are unique to their languages.

The goal is not to change or amend the text of the Bible; instead, the translations serve as a scriptural prism to reveal the many-coloured details are that otherwise impossible to view.

TIPs is owned by the United Bible Societies, and is free to use at the link

Update on 'The Quiet Revival'

You may have seen recent coverage of The Quiet Revival, a report published last year by the Bible Society in England and Wales that highlighted encouraging signs of renewed interest in Christian faith, particularly among young people.

Last week, the Bible Society shared that YouGov, who conducted the survey, has since identified an issue with the survey sample. As a result, the report can no longer be relied upon as a definitive picture of the spiritual landscape. We are grateful for the transparency and integrity shown in addressing this openly.

Here in Northern Ireland, while we do not have equivalent large-scale research, we continue to hear many encouraging stories through our relationships with churches – of people engaging with the Bible, exploring Christian faith, and asking new questions.

While it is disappointing that this research cannot stand, our confidence does not rest in a single report. We continue to rejoice in what God is doing and remain committed to serving the Church as people encounter Jesus through His Word.

Please join us in praying for our colleagues in the Bible Society in England and Wales, and for the ongoing work of Bible Societies around the world, as together we seek to shine a light on what God is doing through the Bible.
