Life's most important question

Jesus once asked His disciples a question that still matters today:

"Who do you say I am?"

It is a deeply personal question. Jesus was not asking for second-hand opinions, cultural assumptions or what other people thought of Him. He was inviting His followers to look at Him for themselves and answer honestly.

Who Do You Say I Am? is a short Our Daily Bread resource created to help readers do just that. Through Bible readings, reflections, verses and simple questions, this booklet explores who Jesus is, why He came, what His death and resurrection achieved, and what it means to know Him personally.

It is a helpful resource for anyone who is curious about Jesus, new to Christian faith, or wanting to return to the heart of the gospel with fresh clarity. It speaks honestly about sin, grace, forgiveness, new life and the hope Jesus offers to every person who comes to Him.

Because if Jesus is who He claimed to be, knowing Him is the most extraordinary privilege we could ever experience.
